Once your application has been processed, additional materials will be sent to you prior to the start of the course.

So that we may better serve your interests during the Permaculture Design Course, please answer the following questions on a separate piece of paper (no more than one page):

1. Describe your previous experience, if any, in land-based fields (gardening, farming, green building, community development/activism, etc.).
2. Explain your interest in the program, and how this permaculture training will fit into your future plans.
3. Briefly describe your educational/professional background.
4. How did you learn about this Permaculture Design Course?

Cancellation and Refund Policy: Course payments are due in full by application deadline(s). Full refunds will be issued if the course is cancelled by Glacial Lakes Permaculture due to under-enrollment. Once payment is made, individuals withdrawing from the course for any reason will forfeit course fees as follows: up to one month in advance (25%); less than one month, but at least one week in advance (50%); less than one week in advance (100%). No refunds will be issued once course starts.
